

7.1 Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

The department strives to hold to the following values:

- Striving for excellence in performance-based teaching and research
- Maintaining high levels of professionalism and integrity
- Creating an environment of active learning and effective communication
- Striving for the highest qualities in all aspects of our work

Involved in the “Janma Bhoomi Programme” to encourage and motivate the students for make them to Participate in the Community related Services.

